MOTION FOR DETENTION

COMES NOW the United States by and through its United States Attorney and files this motion for pretrial detention under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3141, et seq., and would show the Court the following:

1. The pending case involves:
 - [] (A) A crime of violence
 - [X] (B) An offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
 - [X] (C) An offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act, the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act or the Maritime Drug Law Enforcement Act.
 - [] (D) A felony committed after Defendant had been convicted of two or more prior offenses described in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C) or comparable state or local offense.
 - [X] (E) A serious risk that the Defendant will flee.
 - [X] (F) A serious risk that the persons will obstruct, or attempt to obstruct justice, or attempt to threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror.

- [] (G) An offense committed by Defendant while released pending trial or sentence, or while on probation or parole requiring an initial 10 day detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3142(d).
- [] (H) An offense committed by the above named defendants who are not citizens of the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence requiring initial 10 day detention under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. Section 3142(d).

2. No condition or combination of conditions will:

- [X] (A) Reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required.
- [X] (B) Reasonably assure the safety of the community or any other person.

The United States may advocate additional reasons for detention other than those indicated above as the investigation proceeds and new information becomes available.

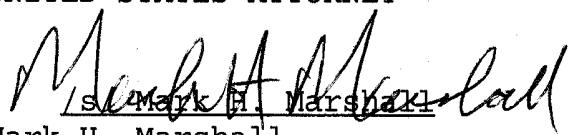

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3142(f) the United States moves that the detention hearing be continued for THREE (3) days so that the United States can prepare for said hearing.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Government requests that the Defendant be held without bond.

Respectfully Submitted,

Johnny Sutton
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
